

Watering Places and Summer Retreats.

With the thermometer at 95 degrees in the shade, it is almost a miracle that the people of the city should be able to find a moment of repose. The heat is so oppressive that the only relief is to be found in the water. The bathing places are everywhere, and the people are flocking to them in great numbers. The most popular are the Long Branch, the Sea View, and the Clifton. The water is so pure and refreshing that it is a great relief to the heat. The people are also enjoying the scenery and the fresh air. The summer season is now in full swing, and the people are making the most of it.

The Ormsby Pavilion, at Glen Cove, is one of the first of these places that occurs to us.

It is a beautiful and comfortable summer residence in the environs of New York. The table is excellent, the rooms well ventilated and well kept, and the service is all that can be desired. Between good society, and the variety of outdoor amusements which the place offers, visitors will find abundant opportunities for recreation.

At the Highlands of Nesqueh, below Sandy Hook.

Thompson's Pavilion, enclosed since last season by the addition of an extensive wing fronting the sea, is now thoroughly prepared for the reception of visitors. The proximity of this beautiful locality to New York, (being only a two hours' trip by steamboat, morning or afternoon), the magnificent composition of the surrounding landscape, the ocean, rivers, plains, hills, mountains, fields and forests, the charming drive, the fine fishing, and the broad expanse of inland water for sailing excursions, are among the extraordinary natural advantages of this place as a summer resort.

In addition to these, Mr. Thompson is a man of experience in his business, and provides comfortably on a basis of reasonable charges, for his guests, never surprising the unwary sojourner with an unexpected bill of miscellaneous extras at his departure.

The Forest House, built on the shore of the mountain, is one of the most picturesque and delightful summer retreats in New Jersey. It is situated on the borders of a large and dense forest, and possesses all the advantages of fine mountain air combined with shade. People who find the sea breezes too strong for them had better pay a visit to this charming spot.

At the Highlands of Nesqueh, Long Branch, New Jersey, is one of the most comfortable and most agreeably situated summer residences that we know of. Fine sea bathing, excellent fishing, picturesque drives and select and agreeable society complete the catalogue of its attractions.

The Mansion House, Keyport, N. J., will be found particularly desirable for quiet, comfortable seeking people who dislike bustle, and love a well ordered establishment. Captain DeGroot's reputation as a caterer, and his well known attention to the wants and wishes of his guests, will ensure to visitors of this class the non plus ultra of enjoyment.

The Neptune House, New Rochelle, already known as a charmingly situated and most agreeable residence, has had fresh attractions added to it this season. The house has been entirely renovated, and the grounds have been improved and beautified. The view from this establishment is one of the finest in the neighborhood of New York, the hotel being situated on an island about a mile from the depot, on the margin of Long Island Sound.

One feature which will recommend it to many is, that persons desirous of visiting New York daily can do so in a most comfortable and convenient manner. The hotel is well situated for the purpose, and the service is all that can be desired.

The United States Hotel, at Long Branch, N. J., was opened on the 25th. It is a most comfortable and well ordered house, which, with its excellent situation, renders it one of the most desirable residences at this popular watering place.

Bridgeville's Hotel, at Rockaway, Long Island, will have extended accommodations this season. The Gray Cottage has been engaged for private and public club and supper rooms, and various other additions have been made to provide against the disappointments experienced in the rush of visitors last year. Of the advantages of the situation it is unnecessary for us to speak. It is sufficient to say that it combines everything that the health seeker and lover of picturesque scenery can desire.

The modern Babylon, on Long Island, we are told, resembles its ancient prototype only in name, comfort and ease being substituted for oppressive splendor, and the confusion of longings giving place to thorough discipline and the most perfect regularity of arrangements. The fishing at this place is said to be very fine, and the table of the American Hotel, if we are to believe report, has no superior.

Those who love river scenery will do well to keep their quarters at the Getty House, Yorkers, in Westchester county. It is situated on the Hudson, about seven miles from the city, and commands some of the most beautiful views in the world. The establishment possesses the advantages of baths, a gymnasium and billiards, with a variety of other resources, to enable its guests to pass their time agreeably.

The Fort William Henry Hotel, situated at Lake George, Warren county, New York, has recently had extensive additions made to it, the rush of visitors last year to this delightful spot having rendered a further extension of its accommodations necessary. It can now lodge comfortably about four hundred persons. The steam John Jay hotel, on the lake, is also a most comfortable and well ordered establishment. The fishing at this place is said to be very fine, and the table of the American Hotel, if we are to believe report, has no superior.

The Columbian Springs House, near the city of Hudson, is a very quiet and agreeable residence, frequented principally by invalids afflicted with catarrhs of the bladder, for which the waters of this springs are a famous specific. The Clifton House, situated at Mantaw, opposite Keyport, N. J., is one of the finest sites of any watering place in the neighborhood of New York, the scenery, bathing, fishing and other amusements of the place being unsurpassed.

The Filmore House, at Newport, R. I., is a new and first class hotel, erected by Mr. Hazard, who has kept the Bellevue House for the last twelve years. It is said to be one of the most comfortable and comfortable establishments in this popular watering place.

La Favorita, Glen Cove, L. I., is known as a quiet, comfortable house, where those who are fond of good bathing, boating and fishing can enjoy them to their hearts' content. The table is substantial, and the host civil and obliging.

Lake Hopatcong House offers the attractions of beautiful lake scenery and fine rod fishing. There is also excellent shooting to be had in the mountains which border the lake.

The Carman House, Carmanville, situated near Audubon park, about nine miles from the City Hall, will be found to be a most desirable summer residence for those not wishing to go too far from New York.

The Warren House, Springfield, Massachusetts, has been recently put into thorough repair, and will be found to be a most comfortable and comfortable establishment. The fishing at this place is said to be very fine, and the table of the American Hotel, if we are to believe report, has no superior.

The Stafford Springs House, Stafford, Connecticut, will be found to be a most comfortable and comfortable establishment. The fishing at this place is said to be very fine, and the table of the American Hotel, if we are to believe report, has no superior.

The Sea Girt House, at Newport, was opened on Friday week, for the reception of visitors. The house is elegantly fitted up, and the accommodations will be found equal to that of any hotel at this fashionable watering place. A number of parlors have been specially reserved for ladies, and for gentlemen there are private dining and supper rooms. When we say that the host is Geo. T. Downing, of this city, we have given a guarantee for the substantial comfort of the arrangements.

The Mount Vernon Hotel, Cape May, N. J., was opened on Tuesday last. A grand banquet was given on the occasion.

The Welland House, St. Catharines, Lower Canada, was opened on the 25th. A grand celebration ball was given by the proprietors.

At Manchester, England, a serious misunderstanding between the proprietors of the city and the city authorities has led to a serious and costly dispute. The city authorities are determined to have the city improved, and the proprietors are determined to have the city as it is.

Dramatic and Musical Matters.

The past week has been rather a dull one in the world of amusement, Burton's and Niblo's being the only houses open. At the first named house the selections have been rather heavy for the season, but the business has been fair. The premiere opera of Laura Keane's Varieties has turned out an illusion. Signora Testa's Italian had health, and is enjoying the sea breeze from the classic heights of sweet Weehawken. There will be a performance of the Varieties to-morrow evening, the proceeds of which will be given to the sufferers by the recent inundations in France. The performance will include a French drama and vaudeville, and will be given by a company of French artists, under the direction of M. Gustave Dede, who purposes giving a series of representations of French plays at the same house. We trust that M. Dede, who gives his initial representation for so worthy an object, will receive the support of the public.

Mr. Brougham opens the Bowery this evening, with a strong stock company. There has been an entire overhauling and grand clearing out of the whole establishment, from stem to stern, and everything will be done up in the nicest manner. The feature of the performance this evening is "Macbeth," in which Mr. Charles Fisher and Miss M. Ponsi play the principal parts. Also, "The Married Bachelor," with Miss Kate Reynolds as Mrs. Tric Trac. The public voice is with Mr. Brougham, and his success will, we hope, exceed his most sanguine expectations.

WALLACE'S THEATRE opens as a Summer Garden on Tuesday. The theatre will be kept cool by an immense fan, and the ladies will be surrounded by flowers and greenery. Light vaudeville, burlesque and song, will form the entertainment, and Miss Agnes Robertson will interpret them to the satisfaction of the patrons. Mr. T. Johnston, Miss Jessie McLean and other favorites, are also engaged, and the Summer Garden will be found a right pleasant place, we have no doubt.

At BURTON'S THEATRE, "London Assurance" is announced for this evening, with Mr. W. H. Crisp, Mrs. Crisp, Mr. Fleming and Mrs. Fleming in the principal parts. Mr. Crisp is an old favorite here, and will have a warm welcome.

NIBLO'S GARDEN—Mr. Lehmann's grand romantic spectacle of the "Elf King," which had a fine run in the early part of the season, is to be revived this evening. Mr. Robert and others of the ballet troupe appear in a series of beautiful dances. Mr. Lehmann goes through his extraordinary performance on the tight rope.

At the BROADWAY VAUDEVILLE, the Juvenile Comedians give "Black Foe Susan," and "The Toolies." They do very nicely.

Mr. KELLEY'S Tableau Vivants are growing in popularity with every representation. He announces a tempting programme for this week, including a new patriotic mimic scene, styled the "Third and Fourth of July."

At WOOD'S MINSTRELS, the attraction for to-night is the new burlesque on the "Trovatore." The bill gives promise of something rich.

The MANSIEU OPERA TRUPE gives a concert this evening, at Continental Hall, corner of Eighth avenue and Thirty-fourth street.

AMATEUR DRAMA—The performance given by the Thespian Dramatic Association on the 22d inst. passed off very creditably. The house was crowded to excess by a highly respectable assemblage. "Macbeth" has been selected for their next evening. The leading character will be sustained by Mr. Russell.

NEWARK, N. J.—Mr. Barton and Mrs. C. Howard have been playing here for full houses. The theatre is managed by Mr. Plunkett.

CINCINNATI—Mrs. Gladstone has been the attraction at the National during the past week, and had a benefit on Friday.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Miss C. Crampton is the star at the theatre here. La Grange and Gottschalk give a concert this evening (30th June).

Boston.—The work of the Association has already commenced at the Museum, which closes this week. The exhibition of the Gabriel Ravel troupe have succeeded the regular company at the Walnut. They go thence to Buffalo.

MOBILE, Ala.—Mr. S. B. Duffell has a lease of this theatre for five years. He has engaged as his leading artists next season Mr. George Panoforoff and Miss Edwards. Mr. Duffell is well and favorably known to the Southern theatre goers. He was stage manager for Mr. de Bar, at the St. Charles, New Orleans, last season.

St. Louis.—Mr. Collins, the Irish comedian, has leased the St. Louis theatre. The people are open for a summer season.

SAN FRANCISCO.—At the Union they are running a local drama, "The Past, Present and Future of San Francisco," in which J. B. Booth and Mrs. Woodward play the principal parts. Rowe & Co.'s Circus had gone on a tour through the southern mines. The negro minstrel, Wells, Brown & Co., were doing well at the theatre. The local stars are twinkling in the interior cities, the local exhibitions in San Francisco having used up the local talent.

FOREIGN.—The last New London fair, "A Fascinating Individual," at the Adelphi, is said to be rather weak, but made tolerably good use of the excellent acting of Mr. Duffell. The Sunday Times of the 8th inst. says:

"Mr. Florence, who, with his lady, has been so successful in their performances at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, has been engaged to appear at the Theatre Royal, Plymouth, for the purpose of raising money for the relief of the sufferers from the recent famine in Ireland. The company will arrive at Plymouth on Thursday last, and will perform at the Theatre Royal, Plymouth, on Friday and Saturday next. The company will be well received, and the proceeds of their performances will be sent to the relief of the sufferers from the famine in Ireland."

The Florences were playing at Manchester at the last accounts, and were highly spoken of by the papers.

A FRENCH ACTRESS AND HER DESSERTS.—Madame Klein, dressmaker, of Paris, recently obtained authorization to seize the furniture and effects of Mlle. Judith, the well known actress, owing to the non-payment of her bill; and in virtue thereof she caused a huissier to seize all the contents of Mlle. Judith's dressing-room at the Theatre Francaise. Mlle. Judith caused an application to be made to the President of the Civil Tribunal sitting in chambers for a restoration of all the objects seized, on the ground that as the law did not allow the huissier to take an article to be laid hands on it, he could not allow objects indispensable to her in her profession of actress to be seized. The police conveyed him to the prison, where Mlle. Judith was confined for a few days. She was released on bail, and the huissier was ordered to return the objects seized. The President ordered that whatever was necessary to the actress in the exercise of her profession should be returned to her.

SUCCESS OF AN AMERICAN PRIMA DONNA IN EUROPE.—From the London Times, June 11.

An attempt to introduce Italian opera on the Surrey side of the Thames is now being made, for the first time, under the auspices of Mr. Wilfrid Paine, and seems likely to prove successful. The opera of "Norma," is selected to start with, in consequence of its very extended popularity. Madame Loring (from New York), who assumed the name of Norma, has a voice of powerful tone and good quality, sings with great energy, and looks the part of the heroine. As an actress, too, this lady is evidently no novice. She treats the boards with ease; her gestures are graceful, and she is thoroughly familiar with the business of the stage. On the whole, indeed, we have seen many a less brilliant prima donna with twice the talent of Madame Loring. The opera of "Norma" will be given on Friday next, at the Theatre Royal, Surrey, and will be well received. The public voice is with Madame Loring, and her success will, we hope, exceed her most sanguine expectations.

At Manchester, England, a serious misunderstanding between the proprietors of the city and the city authorities has led to a serious and costly dispute. The city authorities are determined to have the city improved, and the proprietors are determined to have the city as it is.

Sechitzky is by no means an uninteresting Adalgisa. The representatives of the drama derive valuable support from a band of about 35, under the direction of Mr. A. M. Wilson, and a chorus which, though not numerous, is composed, like the band, of experienced performers. The music is well adapted to the drama, and, indeed, everything has been done to promote the success of the opera. The public voice is with Sechitzky, and his success will, we hope, exceed his most sanguine expectations.

At the BROADWAY VAUDEVILLE, the Juvenile Comedians give "Black Foe Susan," and "The Toolies." They do very nicely.

Mr. KELLEY'S Tableau Vivants are growing in popularity with every representation. He announces a tempting programme for this week, including a new patriotic mimic scene, styled the "Third and Fourth of July."

At WOOD'S MINSTRELS, the attraction for to-night is the new burlesque on the "Trovatore." The bill gives promise of something rich.

The MANSIEU OPERA TRUPE gives a concert this evening, at Continental Hall, corner of Eighth avenue and Thirty-fourth street.

AMATEUR DRAMA—The performance given by the Thespian Dramatic Association on the 22d inst. passed off very creditably. The house was crowded to excess by a highly respectable assemblage. "Macbeth" has been selected for their next evening. The leading character will be sustained by Mr. Russell.

NEWARK, N. J.—Mr. Barton and Mrs. C. Howard have been playing here for full houses. The theatre is managed by Mr. Plunkett.

CINCINNATI—Mrs. Gladstone has been the attraction at the National during the past week, and had a benefit on Friday.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Miss C. Crampton is the star at the theatre here. La Grange and Gottschalk give a concert this evening (30th June).

Boston.—The work of the Association has already commenced at the Museum, which closes this week. The exhibition of the Gabriel Ravel troupe have succeeded the regular company at the Walnut. They go thence to Buffalo.

MOBILE, Ala.—Mr. S. B. Duffell has a lease of this theatre for five years. He has engaged as his leading artists next season Mr. George Panoforoff and Miss Edwards. Mr. Duffell is well and favorably known to the Southern theatre goers. He was stage manager for Mr. de Bar, at the St. Charles, New Orleans, last season.

St. Louis.—Mr. Collins, the Irish comedian, has leased the St. Louis theatre. The people are open for a summer season.

SAN FRANCISCO.—At the Union they are running a local drama, "The Past, Present and Future of San Francisco," in which J. B. Booth and Mrs. Woodward play the principal parts. Rowe & Co.'s Circus had gone on a tour through the southern mines. The negro minstrel, Wells, Brown & Co., were doing well at the theatre. The local stars are twinkling in the interior cities, the local exhibitions in San Francisco having used up the local talent.

FOREIGN.—The last New London fair, "A Fascinating Individual," at the Adelphi, is said to be rather weak, but made tolerably good use of the excellent acting of Mr. Duffell. The Sunday Times of the 8th inst. says:

"Mr. Florence, who, with his lady, has been so successful in their performances at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, has been engaged to appear at the Theatre Royal, Plymouth, for the purpose of raising money for the relief of the sufferers from the recent famine in Ireland. The company will arrive at Plymouth on Thursday last, and will perform at the Theatre Royal, Plymouth, on Friday and Saturday next. The company will be well received, and the proceeds of their performances will be sent to the relief of the sufferers from the famine in Ireland."

The Florences were playing at Manchester at the last accounts, and were highly spoken of by the papers.

A FRENCH ACTRESS AND HER DESSERTS.—Madame Klein, dressmaker, of Paris, recently obtained authorization to seize the furniture and effects of Mlle. Judith, the well known actress, owing to the non-payment of her bill; and in virtue thereof she caused a huissier to seize all the contents of Mlle. Judith's dressing-room at the Theatre Francaise. Mlle. Judith caused an application to be made to the President of the Civil Tribunal sitting in chambers for a restoration of all the objects seized, on the ground that as the law did not allow the huissier to take an article to be laid hands on it, he could not allow objects indispensable to her in her profession of actress to be seized. The police conveyed him to the prison, where Mlle. Judith was confined for a few days. She was released on bail, and the huissier was ordered to return the objects seized. The President ordered that whatever was necessary to the actress in the exercise of her profession should be returned to her.

SUCCESS OF AN AMERICAN PRIMA DONNA IN EUROPE.—From the London Times, June 11.

An attempt to introduce Italian opera on the Surrey side of the Thames is now being made, for the first time, under the auspices of Mr. Wilfrid Paine, and seems likely to prove successful. The opera of "Norma," is selected to start with, in consequence of its very extended popularity. Madame Loring (from New York), who assumed the name of Norma, has a voice of powerful tone and good quality, sings with great energy, and looks the part of the heroine. As an actress, too, this lady is evidently no novice. She treats the boards with ease; her gestures are graceful, and she is thoroughly familiar with the business of the stage. On the whole, indeed, we have seen many a less brilliant prima donna with twice the talent of Madame Loring. The opera of "Norma" will be given on Friday next, at the Theatre Royal, Surrey, and will be well received. The public voice is with Madame Loring, and her success will, we hope, exceed her most sanguine expectations.

At Manchester, England, a serious misunderstanding between the proprietors of the city and the city authorities has led to a serious and costly dispute. The city authorities are determined to have the city improved, and the proprietors are determined to have the city as it is.

City Intelligence.

Another Heavy Thaw.—The weather yesterday was an "eddy," a "back-slash," succeeded in producing what has no doubt been the "hottest" day of the season. At noon, the thermometer stood at 95 degrees. At three o'clock P. M., it had reached 99 degrees. In the forenoon, it must have reached 100, and in the evening, it must have reached 101. The weather was so warm that the people were flocking to the water. The bathing places were everywhere, and the people were flocking to them in great numbers. The most popular are the Long Branch, the Sea View, and the Clifton. The water is so pure and refreshing that it is a great relief to the heat. The people are also enjoying the scenery and the fresh air. The summer season is now in full swing, and the people are making the most of it.

The Ormsby Pavilion, at Glen Cove, is one of the first of these places that occurs to us. It is a beautiful and comfortable summer residence in the environs of New York. The table is excellent, the rooms well ventilated and well kept, and the service is all that can be desired. Between good society, and the variety of outdoor amusements which the place offers, visitors will find abundant opportunities for recreation.

At the Highlands of Nesqueh, below Sandy Hook. Thompson's Pavilion, enclosed since last season by the addition of an extensive wing fronting the sea, is now thoroughly prepared for the reception of visitors. The proximity of this beautiful locality to New York, (being only a two hours' trip by steamboat, morning or afternoon), the magnificent composition of the surrounding landscape, the ocean, rivers, plains, hills, mountains, fields and forests, the charming drive, the fine fishing, and the broad expanse of inland water for sailing excursions, are among the extraordinary natural advantages of this place as a summer resort.

In addition to these, Mr. Thompson is a man of experience in his business, and provides comfortably on a basis of reasonable charges, for his guests, never surprising the unwary sojourner with an unexpected bill of miscellaneous extras at his departure.

The Forest House, built on the shore of the mountain, is one of the most picturesque and delightful summer retreats in New Jersey. It is situated on the borders of a large and dense forest, and possesses all the advantages of fine mountain air combined with shade. People who find the sea breezes too strong for them had better pay a visit to this charming spot.

At the Highlands of Nesqueh, Long Branch, New Jersey, is one of the most comfortable and most agreeably situated summer residences that we know of. Fine sea bathing, excellent fishing, picturesque drives and select and agreeable society complete the catalogue of its attractions.

The Mansion House, Keyport, N. J., will be found particularly desirable for quiet, comfortable seeking people who dislike bustle, and love a well ordered establishment. Captain DeGroot's reputation as a caterer, and his well known attention to the wants and wishes of his guests, will ensure to visitors of this class the non plus ultra of enjoyment.

The Neptune House, New Rochelle, already known as a charmingly situated and most agreeable residence, has had fresh attractions added to it this season. The house has been entirely renovated, and the grounds have been improved and beautified. The view from this establishment is one of the finest in the neighborhood of New York, the hotel being situated on an island about a mile from the depot, on the margin of Long Island Sound.

One feature which will recommend it to many is, that persons desirous of visiting New York daily can do so in a most comfortable and convenient manner. The hotel is well situated for the purpose, and the service is all that can be desired.

The United States Hotel, at Long Branch, N. J., was opened on the 25th. It is a most comfortable and well ordered house, which, with its excellent situation, renders it one of the most desirable residences at this popular watering place.

Bridgeville's Hotel, at Rockaway, Long Island, will have extended accommodations this season. The Gray Cottage has been engaged for private and public club and supper rooms, and various other additions have been made to provide against the disappointments experienced in the rush of visitors last year. Of the advantages of the situation it is unnecessary for us to speak. It is sufficient to say that it combines everything that the health seeker and lover of picturesque scenery can desire.

The modern Babylon, on Long Island, we are told, resembles its ancient prototype only in name, comfort and ease being substituted for oppressive splendor, and the confusion of longings giving place to thorough discipline and the most perfect regularity of arrangements. The fishing at this place is said to be very fine, and the table of the American Hotel, if we are to believe report, has no superior.

Those who love river scenery will do well to keep their quarters at the Getty House, Yorkers, in Westchester county. It is situated on the Hudson, about seven miles from the city, and commands some of the most beautiful views in the world. The establishment possesses the advantages of baths, a gymnasium and billiards, with a variety of other resources, to enable its guests to pass their time agreeably.

The Fort William Henry Hotel, situated at Lake George, Warren county, New York, has recently had extensive additions made to it, the rush of visitors last year to this delightful spot having rendered a further extension of its accommodations necessary. It can now lodge comfortably about four hundred persons. The steam John Jay hotel, on the lake, is also a most comfortable and well ordered establishment. The fishing at this place is said to be very fine, and the table of the American Hotel, if we are to believe report, has no superior.

The Columbian Springs House, near the city of Hudson, is a very quiet and agreeable residence, frequented principally by invalids afflicted with catarrhs of the bladder, for which the waters of this springs are a famous specific. The Clifton House, situated at Mantaw, opposite Keyport, N. J., is one of the finest sites of any watering place in the neighborhood of New York, the scenery, bathing, fishing and other amusements of the place being unsurpassed.

The Filmore House, at Newport, R. I., is a new and first class hotel, erected by Mr. Hazard, who has kept the Bellevue House for the last twelve years. It is said to be one of the most comfortable and comfortable establishments in this popular watering place.

La Favorita, Glen Cove, L. I., is known as a quiet, comfortable house, where those who are fond of good bathing, boating and fishing can enjoy them to their hearts' content. The table is substantial, and the host civil and obliging.

Lake Hopatcong House offers the attractions of beautiful lake scenery and fine rod fishing. There is also excellent shooting to be had in the mountains which border the lake.

The Carman House, Carmanville, situated near Audubon park, about nine miles from the City Hall, will be found to be a most desirable summer residence for those not wishing to go too far from New York.

The Warren House, Springfield, Massachusetts, has been recently put into thorough repair, and will be found to be a most comfortable and comfortable establishment. The fishing at this place is said to be very fine, and the table of the American Hotel, if we are to believe report, has no superior.

The Stafford Springs House, Stafford, Connecticut, will be found to be a most comfortable and comfortable establishment. The fishing at this place is said to be very fine, and the table of the American Hotel, if we are to believe report, has no superior.

The Sea Girt House, at Newport, was opened on Friday week, for the reception of visitors. The house is elegantly fitted up, and the accommodations will be found equal to that of any hotel at this fashionable watering place. A number of parlors have been specially reserved for ladies, and for gentlemen there are private dining and supper rooms. When we say that the host is Geo. T. Downing, of this city, we have given a guarantee for the substantial comfort of the arrangements.

The Mount Vernon Hotel, Cape May, N. J., was opened on Tuesday last. A grand banquet was given on the occasion.

The Welland House, St. Catharines, Lower Canada, was opened on the 25th. A grand celebration ball was given by the proprietors.

At Manchester, England, a serious misunderstanding between the proprietors of the city and the city authorities has led to a serious and costly dispute. The city authorities are determined to have the city improved, and the proprietors are determined to have the city as it is.

THE SCHUYLER FRAUDS.

The President, Directors and Company, of the Mechanics' Bank, in the City of New York, against the New York and New Haven Railroad Company.

This case was heard on the 29th inst. at Albany, before Hon. E. D. Tamm, Chief Justice, and Hon. A. S. Johnson, J. P. The case was argued by Messrs. William C. Brewster, George W. F. Wall, Jr., and Daniel Lord, for the plaintiffs; and by Messrs. E. D. Tamm, J. P., and Daniel Lord, for the defendants.

It was held that the New York and New Haven Railroad Company, by its officers and agents, had committed a fraud on the Mechanics' Bank, and that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest.

The court held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its money and interest, and that the railroad company was liable for the fraud. The court also held that the bank was entitled to recover its costs and expenses.

THE SCHUYLER FRAUDS.

The President, Directors and Company, of the Mechanics' Bank, in the City of New York, against the New York and New Haven Railroad Company.

This case was heard on the 29th inst. at Albany, before Hon. E. D. Tamm, Chief Justice, and Hon. A. S. Johnson, J. P. The case was argued by Messrs. William C. Brewster, George W. F. Wall, Jr., and